

PHONE ENGLISH

---

IELTS A

ENGLISH CONVERSATION

SKY COMMUNITY BOOKS

Published by Sky Community Group

ISBN 978-89-962782-3-8

No Part of this publication may be reproduced in whole or in part, or stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by an means,
electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise,
without written permission of the publisher

IELTS A

Contents

---

Lesson 1	Musical instrument	4
Lesson 2	Dance	7
Lesson 3	Friend	10
Lesson 4	Food	13
Lesson 5	Holiday	16
Lesson 6	House	19
Lesson 7	School	22
Lesson 8	Travel	25
Lesson 9	Family	28
Lesson 10	Hobby	31
Lesson 11	Electronic device	34
Lesson 12	Movie	37
Lesson 13	Music	40

---

IELTS Speaking

IELTS Speaking

IELTS Speaking module takes between 11 and 14 minutes and is conducted by a trained examiner.

Part 1

The candidate and the examiner introduce themselves. Candidates then answer general questions about themselves, their home/family, their job/studies, their interests and a wide range of similar familiar topics areas. This part lasts between four and five minutes.

Part 2

The candidate is given a task card with prompts and is asked to talk on a particular topic. The candidate has one minute to prepare and they can make some notes if they wish, before speaking for between one and two minutes. The examiner then asks one or two rounding-off questions.

Part 3

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues which are thematically linked to the topic prompt in Part 2. The discussion lasts between four and five minutes.

The Speaking module assesses whether candidates can communicate effectively in English.

The assessment takes into account Fluency and Coherence, Lexical Resource, Grammatical Range and Accuracy, and Pronunciation.

Part I

* Musical Instrument

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Have you ever learned to play a musical instrument? [Which one?]

What is your favorite musical instrument? [Why?]

Do you think children should learn to play a musical instrument? [Why /Why not?]

How easy would it be to learn to play an instrument without a Instructor? [Why?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Tell me about when you usually use internet

You should say:

How long you do

Where you use it

Why you do it

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

How did it the internet change your life?

How the internet will change the world in the future?

How do you think about internet censorship?

Do you have your own blog? What is your opinion about blog?

Part I

* Dance

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Do you like to dance? [Why?/Why not?]

Have you ever learned how to dance? [Why?/Why not?]

Tell me about any traditional dancing in Korea.

Do you think that traditional dancing will be more popular in the future? [Why?/Why not?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe whether you think e-books will ever replace paper.

You should say

What the advantages of e-books are

What the advantages of paper-books are

What your preference is and why

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

What kind of book do you like to read? [Why?]

Tell me about the book you read recently.

Do you think newspapers are educational for children? [Why?/
Why not?]

What books are you going to read next time? [Why?]

Part I

* Friend

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Who is your best friend? [Why?]

What do you like doing most with your friend?

Do you think it's important to keep in contact with friends [Why?/Why not?]

Is having friends really important? [Why?/Why not?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe a person you have met who is very important to you.
You should say
Where you met that person
When you met that person
And explain Why this person is so important to you

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Who is the person you respect the most? [Why?]

What type of person do you like the most? [Why?]

What type of person do you hate the most? [Why?]

Tell me about people around you.

Part I

* Food

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

What is your favorite food? [Why?]

Do you eat out often? [Why/Why not?]

Where do you like to go when you eat out?

Tell me about the restaurant you visited recently.

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe the house where you live.

You should say

What kind of house you live in

Why you chose to live this house

How is your room like

And describe the neighborhood.

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Will population changes in your country affect the housing and land market? [Why?/ Why not?]

What will be the biggest change of the housing market in the future?

Where do you want to live in your country? [Why?]

Should government allow companies to build more apartment in cities ? [Why?/Why not?]

Part I

* Holiday

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Can you give an example of a popular national holiday in your Country?

What do people do for the holiday?

Does your family do anything special for the holiday?

What do you like to do for the holiday? [Why?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe a celebration in which you were joined.

You should say

What the celebration was

When the celebration happened

Why the celebration was held

And explain how the celebration was conducted.

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Would you rather spend your leisure time alone or with other people?
[Why?]

Do you think joining club activities in high school is a part of education? [Why?/Why not?]

Please tell me about club activities you joined before.

Does Children need to begin their formal education at a very young age and focus on their studies instead of spending their time playing?
[Why?/Why not?]

Part I

* House

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Where do you live? [Why?]

Who do you live with?

Do you have TV in your room? [Why/Why not?]

If you can move your house, where do you want to move? [Why?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Talk about an electronic device that you have.

You should say

- What it is

- What advantages it has

- What disadvantages it has

And describe when you use the electronic device.

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

What functions do you think future computer will have in the future?

What functions do you think future cell phones will have in the future?

What functions do you think future TV will have in the future?

Do you feel that all these additional functions would be useful for you? [Why/ Why not?]

Part I

* School

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Where did you go to school?

What was your favorite subject? [Why?]

What do you plan to do in the future?

Do you want to study more? [Why?/Why not?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Talk about English study.

You should say

How long you have been studying English

What the best way to learn English is

Why you need to learn English

And explain When you are going to use English in the future.

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Do you think that English will remain the most common second language in the world? [Why?/Why not?]

What are the benefits of learning English?

Why learning English is hard compared to your language?

What English words have become part of your local language?

Part I

* Travel

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Do you like traveling? [Why?/Why not?]

Where did you travel recently?

Where would you like to go for next time [Why?]

What place would you recommend to visit in your country? [Why?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Talk about your work experience.

You should say

Where you were working

When you were working

What your job was

And explain why you decided to do the job.

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

How does education affect chances of attaining a job?

What role does communication skills play in a career?

If you have a chance to study new major, What do you want to study?
[Why?]

What do you want to be in 5 years? [Why?]

Part I

* Family

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

How many people are there in your family?

Where is your parent's hometown?

Where does your family live now? [Why?]

Do you spend much time with your family? [Why/Why not?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Talk about transport.

You should say

What kind of transport you usually use

How often you use this

What the advantages and disadvantages of this type of transport are

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Do you prefer to drive your own car or using public transport to work?
[Why?]

If you have a chance to buy a new car, What kind of car do you want to own [Why?]

Should the government force automakers to create cars with higher fuel mileage efficiency? [Why?]

Will Electric Cars Rule the Future? [Why?]

Part I

* Hobby

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

What is your hobby? [Why?]

How much time do you spend on your hobby?

Is there many people who have the same hobby?

Do you need to spend much money for your hobby? [Why?/Why not?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Talk about Your school

You should say

When you graduate

What is your favorite subject

Why like the subject the most

And explain me about what you want to study more.

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Should schools require students to do physical exercise every day?
[Why?/Why not?]

Should school teach only for academic studies? [Why?/Why not?]

If student can take online classes, do they still need to go to school?
[Why?/Why not?]

How will schools change in the future?

Part I

* Electronic device

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

What electronic device do you have?

When do you usually use it?

How often do you use it?

Do you plan to replace it with a new one soon? [Why?]

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Talk about hospital you've been recently.

You should say

Why you went to there

What Doctor did

How long you stayed

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Where can you get information about genetic research in your country?

How do people feel about genetic research in your country?

Should this research be funded by governments or private companies? Why?

Do you think genetic research will help us in the future? Why?

Part I

* Movie

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

What kind movie do you like to watch? [Why?]

What type of movie is popular in your country? [Why?]

How much does it cost to go movie in your country?

Tell me about the movie you've watched recently.

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe your favorite food.

You should say

What it is

How you cook it

When people usually eat it

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

Tell me about traditional foods in your country.

Describe me about traditional food u had recently.

What is your favorite traditional food? [Why?]

When you have guest from foreign country, what do you suggest for traditional foods? [Why?]

Part I

* Music

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

What kind music do you like to listen? [Why?]

What type of music is popular in your country? [Why?]

Do you like to go to concert [Why?/Why not?]

Tell me about the concert you've been recently.

Part II

* Particular Topic

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.
You have one minute to think about what you are going to say.
You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Describe some in your family who you like.

You should say

How this person is related to you

What this person look like

What kind of person he or she is

Part III

* Discussion Topics

The examiner and the candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues.

In what ways can people in a family be similar to each other?

Do you think that daughters are always more similar to mothers than to male relatives?

What about sons and fathers?

Are people more influenced by their family or by their friends? In what ways?